United Way of Greater Duluth has teamed up with Onsite Professional Cleaning to collect bike donations from March 17-31.

Drop off bikes weekdays March 17-31 from 9-5 and Saturday until noon at Onsite Professional Cleaning, 4410 Grand Avenue, West Duluth – across from Denfeld High School.

United Way is gearing up for the annual Bike Swap in April and donated bikes will be re-sold at the swap. Anita Gille, United Way, said “We’ve heard from community members wanting to donate bikes directly to the swap. It’s a great way to help promote healthy living while helping to fund local community programs.” said Anita Gille of United Way.

All the funds generated by bike donations will be donated to United Way of Greater Duluth. For more information, Anita Gille, United Way, said visit www.unitedwayduluth.org and click on bike swap or call 727-2575
